Fifty years is an incredible achievement for the Mountain View Buddhist Temple. Congratulations!

“Community” was a common theme used by Bishop Umezu in his talk at the 50th anniversary service, you read Traci (Endo) Inouye’s perspective about growing up in the MVBT “community.”

I would like to share some of my thoughts and perspectives on what this community means to my family. Growing up in Southern California and going to Venice Hongwanji Buddhist Temple was a formative experience for me. Everyone at the temple was extremely supportive of me, even though I wasn’t always the best kid (think waru bozu). So when our son Scott was about 4 years old, my wife Joy and I wanted to make sure that he had the opportunity to be nurtured in a caring and loving “community.”

Our first impression of MVBT, in addition to throwing an awesome Obon, was that of a friendly and welcoming place. When we entered the Hondo, we were immediately greeted by Mr. Endo, who introduced us to Bob and Naomi

Giving Thanks and Being Grateful—President’s Message

By Bob Imai

But don’t forget to spend some time focused on the true meaning of Thanksgiving and the Holidays. It’s all about giving thanks and being grateful.

It’s also a time of reflection. Let us all strive to remember the meaning behind the holiday that we are celebrating and the importance of family, friends, and giving back during the holiday season.

It has been a great year for me and I’m very grateful for the Mountain View Buddhist Temple Board, past presidents and Reverend Koyama.

Thank you for your support and encouragement. Thank you to all the Temple members and volunteers who make this a very special community.

I also publicly want to thank Leslie, my wife for all her understanding, support and love.

I appreciate all that everyone does and have a happy, safe Thanksgiving and Holiday season.

In gassho,

Bob Imai
MVBT President

I can’t believe Thanksgiving is just around the corner as well as the beginning of our year-ending holiday season. As I get older, time seems to go by faster and faster, where did the year go? This time of year we look forward to spending time with friends and family, eating too much delicious food, having good conversations and hopefully a few laughs.

Bruce Morimoto is the Vice President of Drug Development at Allon Therapeutics.

He attended the Venice Hongwanji Buddhist Temple and was far from the ideal student, with the term, "waru-bozu" often used to describe Bruce.

In 1997, Bruce and his wife Joy moved back to California. They joined Mountain View Buddhist Temple in 2004 to give their son Scott a sense of "community."

He is now co-teaching the high school class, and trying to earn good karma points to make up for all the grief he caused as a student.

Matsumoto and Jill Kunishige. After service, we took Scott to the pre-school class.

Now, at that time, Scott was painfully shy. As we walked into the class, Scott was hiding behind our legs and we were worried: what should we do if he starts to scream? Then a little boy with spiky-gelled hair came up to Scott and said in a cute voice, "Hi, my name is Evan Tsukahara. What is your name?"

That broke the ice and to this day, Evan is one of Scott's closest Dharma School friends. Not to take anything away from Evan, who is really a great kid, but I do remember seeing his mom Sharon telling Evan, "Go say hi to the new kid." This is just one of many examples of the welcoming environment of the MVBT.

The MVBT community reminds me of the lyrics to a Luther Vandross song, "A house is not a home, if no one's home," which means it is the people that make the community a very special place.

The Keiro had the tremendous vision and foresight many years ago to establish this Buddhist community in Mountain View. With enormous personal sacrifice they established the foundation for our temple to thrive. We are all so very fortunate that over the past 50 years, it has been nourished into what it is today.

A testament to the commitment of our Sangha is evidenced by the beautiful facilities we have, the Sangha hall gym and kitchen, the classrooms, and of course, the newly renovated Hondo and YBA hall. But these are just buildings and empty buildings do not make a community.

What makes MVBT a vibrant community is the people and programs that "live" within these walls. Think of the enrichment we have with all of the activities that take place each week—Dharma School, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, YBA, ABA, BWA, the senior group, to name a few.

It is humbling to witness what happens behind the scenes at events like Obon, chicken teriyaki, and this 50th Anniversary event. People make the events happen by giving of themselves, the Buddhist act of selflessness. I realized that "community" is not static and that the community is collectively what we make it to be.

Contributing to make our community successful is not a one-way street. We are also enriched by our efforts to create a community.

For example, we were helping at mochi-tsuki one year and my wife was shaping mochi. She started talking to the lady across the table from her and the topic came up, "Where are you from?" Hawaii. "Where in Hawaii?" Honolulu. "Where in Honolulu?" Kaimuki.

"I'm also from Kaimuki!"

After a few more pounds of shaping mochi and questions about what street they lived on, it turned out that Joy was talking to her Auntie Diane (Umemoto)! We knew that Joy had relatives in the Bay Area, but we didn't know them and who would have guessed that we were both part of the MVBT community? Auntie Diane would later become one of Scott's Dharma School teachers.

My family is grateful that we found such a wonderful community in the MVBT. Our lives have been immensely enhanced by all that we have received, the dedication of the Dharma School teachers to educate our son, the friendships we have made, and even finding a lost relative.

As I look back on what has been accomplished over the past 50 years, I think about the Keiro's aspirations for the future, one that they entrusted us to perpetuate. And so it falls upon us, the next generation of MVBT members to stop and consider the legacy we want to leave for our children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

We have the ability to shape the community, but it requires vision, cooperation and a collective effort to make it happen.

We are all working toward a common goal, that is, to continue to grow the MVBT community for the next 50 years.

Limited Edition 50th Anniversary Nenju Now Available

Of the 25 men's and 25 women's MVBT 50th Anniversary Commemorative Nenju created as ministerial orei for our Anniversary banquet, only 11 men's and 4 women's remain and are now available for sale to Temple members.

These dazzling pearls have a surface resistant to cosmetics, dirt, chemicals, and perfumes. They are also UV protected.

The men's nenju are double strung with heavy duty stainless steel beading wire providing strength to hold the heavy gemstones. The black tassel is made with Kumi-himo cording from Japan.

The women's nenju are also strung with heavy duty stainless steel beading wire, but have a purple traditional fringe tassel from Japan.

These nenju feature the same color design as our 50th Anniversary logo. They are available on a first come basis at the following prices (which are very near wholesale cost):

Meet & Greet Dinner—Men Win Battle of the Sexes?!

The first annual Meet & Greet Dinner was held on November 2.

We had many special guests. As Sterling, our president has said, we wanted other temple people to experience an ABA activity.

Hopefully everyone had a good experience. The members really enjoyed an evening filled with good food, great company and much laughter.

Getting serious (not as much laughter during this part of the evening) about the competition between the sexes. The battle this year was won by the men.

Thank you to the following for their hard work and dedication:

Alice Ishida, Reiko Tsuchida, Judy Nakano, Ann Uyehara,

Marilyn Ozawa and “Senor” Russ Nakano for his impeccable bartending skills.

Also a great big thank you to the ones who make the evening so entertaining by creating activities in which we can all laugh together:

Ken Nakano, Mieko Nakano, Dennis Tsukagawa, Joanne Makishima and Sterling Makishima.

The whole ABA is supportive of this event with their desserts, their attendance and most of all their participation.

Great Job Everyone!!!

Keiro Kai—A Spirited Evening of Karaoke

On November 11, Mountain View Buddhist Temple hosted the Keiro Kai Luncheon honoring all our members over 70 years old. The Luncheon began with a traditional sake toast given by Dennis Tsukagawa in Japanese. At least, I think it was in Japanese, just kidding. Thank you, Dennis.

Instead of Temple organizations providing entertainment the Keiro treated us with a spirited senior activity line dance led by Naomi Ariyama and professional karaoke singing from Jits Higa, Milton Hamasaki, Julie and Kinji Ushiba and Shigeru Tashiro.

This was highlighted by Rev. Dean and Linda's rendition of Ain't No Mountain High Enough. Linda was a great Diana Ross but Sensei you ain't no Marvin G. Thank you, Jits, for leading us in the group song, Sukiyaki.

Special thanks goes to our emcee, Mike Inouye, for running a smooth and entertaining program and to our temple organization members for their hard work.

Special contributors to the Keiro luncheon were Mr. and Mrs. Naomi Higaki, Dale Ando, Yamagami Nursery, Nikaku Animart, Debby Inenaga, Fuji club and Kazuko Tashiro.

YBA Takes 3rd Place in Fresno YBA Conference Talent Show

In October, the YBA had a Halloween activity. We carved festive pumpkins, ate a potluck dinner, and watched a spooky movie.

The YBA attended the Central California YBA Conference in Fresno in mid-November. We made many new friends through ice breakers, workshops, the dance, and hotel bonding. We also won 3rd place in the talent show by performing a song and dance routine.

At the November YBA meeting, we discussed upcoming events such as our pancake breakfast and spaghetti dinner fundraisers, and a possible Orange County road trip in the summer.

The YBA will also be attending Coast District meetings to help plan for our CDYBL Conference on March 16th.
