Perspectives from the Temple's Graduating High School Senior

We recognize and celebrate our graduating high school Senior by printing his Dharma Talk.

I Always Strive to be that Bright and Strong Link

By Evan Itow

My name is Evan Itow and I want to personally thank everyone attending service today.

Unfortunately, for this round of Senior Speeches, I am the only speech, so I'll make sure to hopefully make it a good one.

One of One

Throughout my time in the High School class, I always dreaded being the only one in 2022 making a Senior Speech, but you know, now that I am at this moment, it's not that bad. I mean, I got to choose whatever time I wanted and will know that I had the best Senior Speech of the year. Going along with all of this about being the only one in this year's graduating class, this has been part of my identity even before my very first high school class. I was quite hesitant on how it would be being the only newcomer, when everyone else in the high school class and YBA had already been there for at least a year, how would I fit in? I always wondered how it would be if I was in San Jose with their graduating class this year of about 30 people. However, after my time here, I wouldn't trade my experience with this wonderful Sangha for anything.

Interdependency in My Life

Interdependency can be a word that really sums up my time here and is a word I had never heard of before coming to services and listening in on the Dharma Talks. Now, although not in my daily vocabulary, I try my hardest to implement such teachings in my everyday life. The most profound way it has stuck with me over the years is with the Golden Chain. After having recited the Golden Chain about 100 times, it's kind of with me now, like that one song you just can't get out of your head. I think the most impactful line to me is the one saying that my actions can affect my own and other's happiness or unhappiness. Throughout my everyday life, I always strived to be that bright and strong link. Being able to work interconnectedly and in harmony has always led to the best outcomes, whether that be within my cross-country team or a school project.

Such interdependency was also very prevalent during my time in the YBA. When I first joined the YBA, despite being the only freshman, the older members really helped me learn what it was to really be a part of everything. Through their compassion and constant sharing of wisdom, I learned everything there was to learn, from the meeting jargon, to what a conference was, what to wear to the YBA Spaghetti Dinner. I was met with open arms by everyone, and I am so very thankful to all the people who were in the YBA during my time, past and present. Interdependence also found its way into my later leadership roles in the YBA. Tyler and Megan, who both graduated last year, worked with me every step of the way to make sure I performed my duties on the YBA Cabinet to the highest level. Brent has taken the role of advisor to the next level, making my job in the YBA just so much easier and helping me work out every bit of troubleshooting. Finally, this year, shoutout to Vice, and future, President Jake and Treasurer Ryan for taking on numerous responsibilities this year to make the ship sail smoothly. If it wasn't for all of the support and sense of community that I experienced among everyone in Sangha, my time here would have looked very different.

Always Be Kind to Others

If I could leave a message to the people listening to my speech right now, it would be to always be kind to others, no matter what. If there was one thing I could count on when coming to service and Dharma School, it would be that I would always be greeted at the door with a smile and treated with kindness from everyone here. I might have been stressed out from the previous week or just not in a good mood at all, but coming here for whatever occasion would always make me feel like I mattered. With all of the recent terrible tragedies occurring, my dream is that our world can come together to become one of kindness where everyone is treated with their due respect. If just one person, maybe you, can show kindness to another in one way, maybe the receiver of such kindness can pass it along, and so on, eventually reaching a multitude of people. We can take a break from infecting others with COVID and infect others with love and kindness.

Thank You

Finally, a round of thank-yous. Thank you to the Sangha for always being a community that surrounded me in kindness. Thank you to the Temple, all of my Dharma School teachers, and Reverend Mukojima for teaching me everything there is to know about the teachings of Buddhism, and hopefully even more in the future. Thank you to all of the friends I made along the way here for supporting me every step of the way, thank you to Allyson for being an amazing and very encouraging younger sister. And thank you to my mom and dad for always making sure I am always doing what I need to be doing and always pushing me to do my best.

Can everyone please join me in Gassho.

"When we are called to help
our friends in need
You can count on me like
1, 2, 3
I'll be there
And I know when I need it
I can count on you like 4, 3, 2
And you'll be there
'Cause that's what friends are s'posed to do, oh yeah"

Super Seniors - Obon Memories

The Mountain View Buddhist Temple's Obon Festival and Bazaar have been enjoyable annual events, but COVID has diminished the size over the past few years. This month our Super Seniors share their memories and thoughts from past Obon Festival and Bazaar celebrations.

By Ricky Chu

Over the years, Mountain View Buddhist Temple's Obon Festival and Bazaar has been truly an enjoyable event for our entire community. This year we are in for a special treat as for the first time any of us can remember, the 2022 Obon Festival and Bazaar will be for Temple members only.

This month our Super Seniors share their memories and thoughts from past Obon Festival and Bazaar celebrations.

Milton Hamasaki, a former Bazaar Chairman recalls, "I started off making hot dogs which then evolved in to Corn Dogs with Muneo Masaki with the YABA/ABA group. After many eventful years working the Corn Dog booth, I volunteered to be in charge of setting up and monitoring the Cultural Displays in the YBA Hall. I was fortunate to have passed this on to Peter Matsumoto, who has done a fantastic job with the displays. Every year, it seems lots of people enjoy coming to the Bazaar and we enjoyed it also as a family. I recall always taking one week of vacation from work to help and work at the Bazaar."

Aiko Sugimoto-Miyamoto remembers, "For me the Obon/Bazaar goes back many years when I used to live in Mountain View. One year, Amy Imai asked if I would instruct dancing because I was the only one going to San Jose learning, in the early 50s. Mountain View was a small-town learning and growing.

"I enjoyed being a part of the Bazaar. Between running the ABA and Dharma School booths as chairperson, there were often times I was too busy to dance in the Odori! Today, I am so privileged to be a part of the Obori as a dancing instructor. I am truly proud to say I belong to the Mountain View Buddhist Temple."

Chuck Uyeda fondly remembers, "The bookstore at our Annual Obon Festival has been closed for a few years even before the current pandemic. At one time, it was a popular activity at our Obon and was a very busy time for my wife, Sumi, who ran it with our family and friends for many years. Each year it involved trips to San Francisco's Kinokuniya and BCA bookstores and later to the BCA bookstore in Berkeley only. Initial trips were made to select and pick-up books to be sold. During the Obon weekend the books were laid out on tables in the foyer of Sangha Hall. It was always great to see the interest shown by our membership and many visitors. Kinokuniya book sales were highly varied and included travel, Japanese culture, crafts, cooking, and even children's games and origami packets. Despite its popularity Kinokinoya decided to cease our perennial agreement several years ago. BCA books were primarily religious, but included Ojuzu and other items including cookbooks from different temples. Our Obon bookstore was eventually closed as recommended because the sales of BCA items diminished to the extent that proceeds were too low to continue."

Diane Shinta Durst says, "Having grown up at the Mountain View Buddhist Temple in the 1950s and 60s, I recall Obon as a festive fun time filled with experiences that I still hold as precious. In the week preceding the Obon Bazaar, my family's home kitchen would be filled the aroma of Obaachan's an for making yaki manju that would be sold during the Bazaar. Bachan Shinta's manju had a reputation for being very tasty.

"During odori practice time, I would be taken shopping by Grandma Kawahara to Nichi Bei Bussan Department Store in San Jose's Japantown to make sure that my yukata had all the right ties for the obi, new tabi for zori, new folding fan and kachikachi. On the day of the odori, she would come to our house and dress me. She made sure that the yukata was on perfectly. I can hear today the sound of Obaachan and her friends sitting around odori circle saying "Kirei desu neh."

"Finally, the taste the kushiyaki "meat on a stick" that I ate at the Bazaar after dancing was so good. At the end of the day, there was just enough time to get in a few BINGO games sitting with my Sunday School friends before Mom picked me up. Sugoi!"

Edna Nakano (Yoshino) remembers, "I always enjoyed the dancing practice, more than the actual Obon itself. I really enjoyed all the wonderful food especially the corn, inari, and ohagi, of course, that was not good for my diabetes!"

Richard and Eileen Fujikawa recall fondly many memories, "40+ years ago, when we first became MVBT members, the first job Richard was assigned was Obon Dance Chairman. Little did he know that this would be his lifetime job. Marilyn Ozawa, Sanjyo Kanyoshi, was teaching the dancers and leading the Bon Odori. It was a great pleasure to see the increase in the number of people dancing every year. Marilyn has kept the dance program steady, so it's easier for more people to participate even with no practices. In the pre-COVID Obon, dancers overfilled the dance area and often were bumping into each other. In response to requests for more Obon dancing, Brent Izutsu started a 'Maui Style Obon Dancing' on Saturday night. It is more casual with recorded music and simple attire. Richard is hoping to retire from this fun job before he messes up anything and hopes he will finally have time to learn how to dance at the Odori."

When their daughter Wendy started

Obon dance practice 40+ years ago, Eileen joined the practices because it was fun and great exercise. For the Obon dance, she could handle dressing her daughter in her yukata, but needed help with her own yukata. For many years, her mother, Mrs. Shishido, helped her as well as everyone else that needed help. May Shimoguchi was in charge of dressing helpers, but her helpers were few, so Eileen started to work with her mother and learned some basics of yukata dressing. Eventually May and Mrs. Shisido could no longer work and Eileen had to keep the tradition going. Never having been trained formally, all she could do was rely on her memories and intuition. Her biggest fear was that a dancer's yukata or obi may loosen and fall down. She joined the Odori dance but kept her eyes on all the ladies she helped dress. Now her granddaughters and her friend's granddaughters are wearing yukatas. Eileen is hoping to retire from her job when Richard retires.

Eileen also has fond Obon memories about the food and all the wise and experienced BWA ladies who taught everyone how to cook the favorite foods -- rolling and stuffing the sushi, rolling the perfect ohagi, making the teriyaki beef and chicken, cooking udon noodles, etc. The expert BWA cooks solidified the reputation of MVBT Obon food as the best.

Eileen and Richard thank all the people who trained them in everything about the Obon celebration. They hope that 'their children and grandchildren will learn from the "oldies" and keep the traditions alive.

Mel Inouye says, "It may seem strange, but being a part of the Bazaar construction crew for 40 plus years was actually very rewarding, especially being involved in creating new generations of booths and upgrading our procedures to reduce the construction preparation from two weeks down to four days. Bazaar is always a great time to see people that we may not otherwise see, and especially to remember all of our ancestors who are no longer with us."

The Super Seniors Committee hopes to see everyone out in July where we can enjoy catching up with old friends and hopefully meeting new ones as well.

With Kindness and Gratitude beyond words.

2022 Rev. & Mrs. Sensho Sasaki Scholarship

Evan Itow is the recipient of the 37th Annual Rev. and Mrs. Sensho Sasaki Scholarship.

With the closure of the Temple, the MVBT Sasaki Scholarship Committee presented Evan with his scholarship at the virtual Graduation Service that was held on Sunday, June 12. The Temple congratulates Evan and wishes him continued success in their college life.

To date, the Sasaki Scholarship Committee has given 63 scholarships to deserving Dharma School students.

BACKGROUND

After the passing of both Rev. Sensho and Mrs. Kinuko Sasaki, a scholarship in their name was established at the Mountain View Buddhist Temple in 1985 with a donation from the families of their children. Now, the Sasaki Memorial Scholarship is funded by the proceeds from the Rev. and Mrs. Sensho Sasaki Memorial Scholarship Golf Tournament.

Each June, the Sasaki scholarship is awarded to a college-bound, high school student(s) in the Temple who apply for the scholarship and meet special requirements. The recipient must enroll in a college, express a strong interest in the Buddhist religion, have an excellent attendance record in Dharma School, and have been participating in other Buddhist activities. The scholarship committee also considers YBA participation, Buddhist education activities and an essay. Sometimes the committee awards multiple scholarships, depending on the qualifications of the applicants.

GOLF TOURNAMENT THIS YEAR

Because of the coronavirus pandemic, the golf tournament was cancelled in 2020 and 2021. The golf tournament is now scheduled for Saturday, August 27, 2022. The tournament entry form is in this issue of the Echo. Join us for a fun day.

2022 MBVT Chicken Teriyaki Dinner - Held on Saturday, June 4

Hi Everyone,

A big Thank You to all of the members who purchased this year's version of Chicken Teriyaki!

We prepared and sold 407 meals; 384 take-out, 23 dine-in.

This year's version was a little different than the usual meals prepared, but we wanted to get back to a little normalcy and prepare some real chicken.

We hope you all enjoyed the chicken and tsukemono that was prepared by our small group of volunteers.

EMAILS

Here are some e-mails that I have received since the event.

- "Teriyaki Chicken is excellent. I give it A+. How long did you marinate? The teriyaki flavor permeated the breast meat and not dried out."
- "Chicken was delicious & still hot!!"
- "Chickens were HOT off the grill and juicy!"
- "This is the first time we ever got a 'hot' teri chicken except at the Obon Bazaar and they were delicious!! Breasts were huge and the thighs were smaller but meaty! I know it was sooooo much work, but I want everyone to know it was well worth it and we truly appreciated it."
- "Thanks for all your work on Chicken Teriyaki. It was absolutely delicious and so reassuringly familiar, even if slightly different. Thanks and congratulations to your entire team!"

THANK YOU

I'd like to thank the members of Zone 8 who helped at some point during the week of preparation, either prior to or the day of.

- Randy, Deb, Jordyn, Tyler and Connor Sato

Dear Miroku Youth Group,

First please let me express how sorry I am for the delay in getting this letter out to you all. Each day at the shelter can be a bit of a whirlwind from the morning until the night, but I am sorry for how much time has passed since the day the duffel bags arrived until today.

The youth were in SHOCK when they received the duffel bags you all put together. They appreciated the color and quality of the duffel bags, and the huge bags of candy were of course very popular! Your donation not only provided youth with essential items. This donation was such an act of unconditional kindness (giving something to others without any expectation of getting something in return). For most of the youth at the shelter, an act of unconditional kindness is a foreign concept, so please know that your donation was much more than a duffel bag for the youth.

From all of the youth and the staff here at the Bill Wilson Center's Safety Net Shelter, THANK YOU!!!!!! You make the world a better place, and we are forever grateful ☺

Sincerely,

Eva Haile

Seniors Activities & Crafts Program News

MVBT Seniors Activities and Crafts

Wednesday Monthly Sing Along

The Seniors Activities Group had its final Sing Along on Wednesday May, 25, and is hopeful we can again start in the fall. It was great fun and a chance to see and visit friends singing together or just listening via Zoom. Wish to thank Susan Yuen, Sterling Makishima, Teri Hirota, and Amy Arakaki for getting our music together. Stay well everyone during the summer break.

Every Thursday Taiko

The only program we have continued in our Senior program is the Taiko every Thursday from 10:00 am to 10:45 am. We thank our instructors, Susan Yuen and Linda Uyechi, for their patience, in giving our Taiko lesson via Zoom. Please join in and practice with us, for it is never too late to enjoy and learn Taiko. We are looking for interested Taiko members. For more information, call Reiko Tsuchida

Cookbook Sale

The Senior Activities Cookbook is still available and can be purchased at the Temple office or through the Senior Committee members. The sale price is still at $15.
